It's a challenge this year to find your Christmas cheer. The jolly old geezer left something in the freezer.

Hid this clue in the freezer, now that was just too easy. So now use your brain power & check out the white flour.

I'll give you a break, This couldn't be clearer. Find the clue attached to a mirror.

Retrieve the next clue if you dare, you may need a chair because it's floating somewhere high in the air.

I sure am thirsty, A drink would be nice To wet my whistle, I'll use this device.

Before this is over You'll tour the whole house Find another clue With our not so squeaky mouse.

Still no present You'd better rush Check the room That makes a flush.

You're going thru these clues at a good pace The next one is hidden in the fire-----.

You're almost done I've had my fun You need to look a little more The last clue is on a door.

The game is over The gift you get Find a place in which you sit. Merry Christmas
