

I am a device that you hold up to your eyes and look through to see things that are far away.

I am a small suitcase that is used especially for carrying papers and documents.

I am an electronic machine that can store and work with large amounts of information.

I am a specially shaped piece of glass that is attached to a handle and is used to make an object look larger than it is.

I am a device that shows what time it is.

I am glasses with dark lenses that protect the eyes from the sun and can be used as a disguise.

I am a picture or chart that shows the rivers, mountains, streets, etc., in a particular area.

I am a device (such as a folder) in which documents that you want to keep are stored so that they can be found easily

I am a small electric light that can be carried in your hand and that runs on batteries.

I am a book that contains God's Word and I also am used to shed light!
