You have just awoke from a long nap wanting to play video games!!

But then nature called!

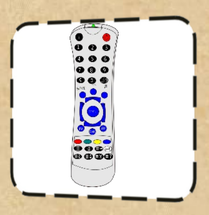
Then you are very hungry so you eat!

The girl or boy next door asks you to go play outside with him/her and climb a tree!

You lose the race up the tree so you grab something on the ground and throw it at the other kid!

You run to a mom and say I threw a rock at a kid!!

You come back to the back the house and become very thirsty and you want a cup of soda!



After you have fullfilled the parchness of yourself, you would like to watch tv!

Your mom calls on the phone and says "have you CLEANED the house yet." (rhymes with Pope)

After a long day you say go up to FUN and say "This is the best party ever!"
