

You will have find the next clue where you would find the presents.

You will find the next clue where the cupcakes are.

You will find the next clue where you would find the drinks.

You will find the next clue where we would roast marshmallows.

You will find the next clue where you would sleep outside.

You will find the next clue underneath something you jump on.

You will find the next clue underneath something you could swing on.

You will find the next clue underneath something you can climb on.

Find the following: rock, leaf, pine cone, stick, bug. Take to Jack's daddy for the last clue.

Stoney's clue: take all puzzle pieces and put them together for a map to where the treasure is.