

In my class, you can find talent that you thought yo never had.

In my class, you come in all fresh and neat, but when you leave you're all sore and sweaty.

I like to fight for what's right. I consider myself a warrior.

How many time have I told you to use the students' door?

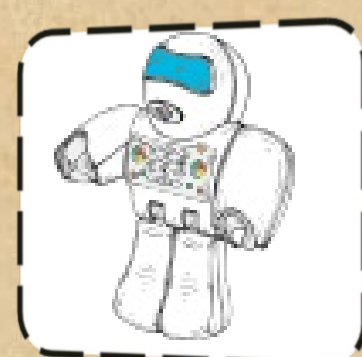

Thanks to me, each one of you has a copy of either a test or quiz.

I'm a body of water, where you can find a lot of rocks and the water is always cold.

I have a shape like a letter from the alphabet, right between the S and the U.

Many people use me to talk to friends and to do work, but no one likes my class and I don't know why.

You only get a chance to seat on me during recess or lunch.

Students on the 7th grade used to seat on me, but not anymore because somebody broke me.
