

Look on the chimney to find what you need.

Then look on the Christmas tree and you will see.

Maybe in the fridge you will find what need.

If your having trouble finding look behind the soda.

If you have found it look under your bed and you might find out what you have been looking for.

If it isn't there maybe try in your backpack.

Maybe in your bathroom cabinets I'm not sure.

I think it's under the couch but I might be wrong.

I know it is here, look under the jackets and you will find it.

HoHoHo Merry Christmas Cameron
