Miss Catherine Middleton

You are formally invited to participate in Her Royal Highness the Queen's royal scavenger hunt

To start your hunt you must be, in the place where you can sit in the breeze. Decking

Now a place for a relaxing game, a place that that's been named after a wonderful dame.

You could learn out here in the blazing sun but you'll be fine because you can sit around and have fun.

Marked by a giraffe you can swing and see, it is fun to get around here along with me.

A place for if your smaller, a very colourful place. But to get here you might need to get pass a gate.

Plenty of trees, benches and flowers. After school they'll be people here for a couple more hours.

A wall inside divides this but it shaded as well, if you could find this clue that would be swell.

I smell yummy things but where could this be, find whoever is in charge and ask them where I need to be.

Here's your final clue so please listen well. Your final location is the place where you'd find the bell.
