

I am a tool. You use me to pound nails into the wall or wood. What am I?

I am something that you use in your house to make rooms brighter. What am I?

I am liquid. I come in different colors. You use a brush to spread me onto walls. What am I?

You can find me in your house on the ceiling. I keep you safe by making a loud noise. What am I?

I am used to lift things like dirt or snow and move it from one place to another. What am I?

I am used to move leaves from one place to another. What am I?

You find me in the kitchen. I keep food cold. What am I?

You find me in the bathroom. When you turn me on, hot or cold water comes out. What am I?
