

The first treasure you seek is easy you see. It hangs from trees, and is as green as peas!

This treasure is hidden somewhere in this house, as quiet as a mouse. It's blond and loves to play games!

This treasure is from Winnie the Pooh. He likes to hop. He has stripes. He'll like you to visit him and go play his game!

Text, text, text that's all we ever do. Relax, lie down. That's where you'll find it.

He's silly and funny. And likes to say odd things. He's smart! So who is he?

Hard or soft. Dark or white. All wrapped up in a cute little wrapper. Mmmm so sweet!

Many faces, many words. Bright light. Loud sound! All coming from one little rectangle?

You look on the floor for this one. Watch your balance! Without this you will fall.

It grows with the plant, yet never grows at all. Many colors. Don't touch it! It will break!

We come in all sizes and shapes. From dark to light. And we can make a rainbow. Gzzh! We are all squished up!
