

Relax take your time I hope you all have fun, now go find a small bug it does not matter which one!

I am small, black and spunky, Catch me if you can, Try to get my picture, as I run across the land.

Find them on the tree or straight up off the ground, place me in your bag, now I'm safe and sound.

A bird is what I am, you can miss me in a blink. Try to catch in a picture, I am closer than you think.

So many pretty flowers, choose two from all the others. Place one flower in your bag and give one to your mother!

Spring is here, in the sky I fly. Move quick and get a pic. of a butterfly.

Near the woods you find me, Not just any branch will do. I have a trick up my sleeve. So find a branch with seven leaves.

Sweet, soft and cuddly Outside is where I reside So try to get my picture before I run and hide!

You can find me near by, Any shape, any size. Once you have me in your hands, move on to your last clue.

Take to the table all that you have found, Now go and find the moms that are hanging all around, Get a picture with each one, To the table..YOUR ALL DONE!
