

We are a pair of alternate interior angles. Find our missing angle and write it in the box.

We are a pair of alternate exterior angles. Find our missing angle and write it in the box.

We are a pair of adjacent supplementary angles. Find our missing angle and write it in the box.

We are a pair of non-adjacent supplementary angles. Find our missing angle and write it in the box.

We are a pair of corresponding angles. Find our missing angle and write it in the box.

We are a pair of vertical angles. Find our missing angle and write it in the box.

I am the congruent sign that in geometry means equal. Write down my color.

I am the transversal that intersects two or more lines. Write down my color.

I am the symbol for angle. Find my color.

I have all the answers written down, and am back in my seat with my homework done.

