

Look for two of these which are the same but still different

A sweet smelling flower is needed now, beware of what is guarding these.

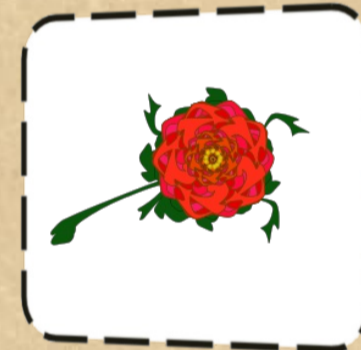

For this we need a blade that is nature's favorite color.

This potion needs a donation from Hedwig.

A hard, white, round and smooth one of these is needed for this potion.

We need something red from Mother Nature.

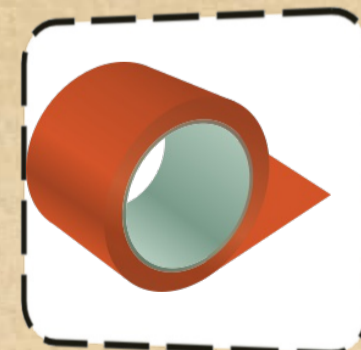

A really straight stick is needed to stir this potion

From a friend you would like to look like one of these is needed.

To free Dobby you will need one of these.

To be able to read spells Harry needs a bit of this to work on his glasses.

