

Clouds are the direct results of which step on the water cycle? A. Condensation B. Evaporation C. Transpiration

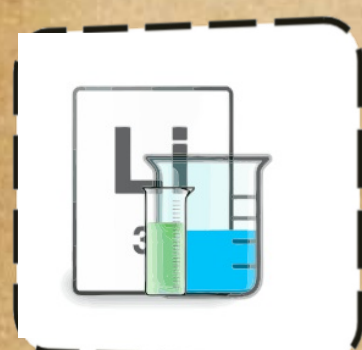

Why does a compass always point north? A. the compass responds to the earth's air pressure B. the compass aligns with earth's magnetic field

Which of the following is a result of acid precipitation? A. increased sulfur dioxide in the atmosphere B. increased corrosion of historic buildings

Which of the following properties allows greenhouse to stimulate the effects of earth's atmosphere? A. it's ability to allow heat to easily escape B. it's ability to prevent heat from escaping

Which of following is true about how earth's ocean affect the planet's climate? A. oceans absorb very little energy from the Sun B. oceans release heat from the Sun

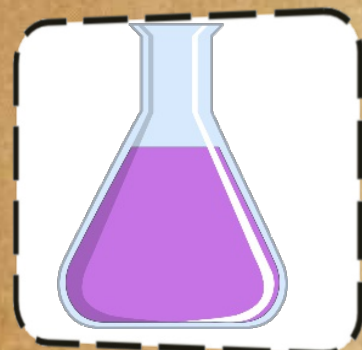

Which of the following compound have increased in the environment due to human activities and has been found to contribute global warming? A. water B. carbon dioxide C. oxide

A theory and hypothesis are related in that A. hypothesis are based on observation but theories unify a range of observations B. both can be turned directly into laws if supported with evidence

In which type of conditions would an artisan well be more likely to overflow with water? A. extreme rainfall B. extreme cold C. drought

Which of the following results in a day on Mercury lasting almost 60 earth days? A. quicker rotation of mercury's axis B. slower rotation of mercury's axis

Which is the best precaution taken by people during a tornado warning? A. seeking shelter upstairs B. seeking shelter in a basement C. seeking shelter in an automobile