

There's buried treasure we must find. Let's begin, don't fall behind. Start at a spot where we all can see, Beneath the leaves of a large pine tree.

You use me when you want to dunk. It's fun to play all day Hurry, fast, don't be late. We're off to find the goods, old mate.

You use me when you want to fly high above the trees. Remember if you want to soar you have to bend your knees

Birds visit when they want to eat. Come inside and grab a treat. Birds love me when they want to eat. Look up high to find their treat.

When you're young you learn to pump. Make sure to sit down on your rump.

Find a tall rock within sight. Search around me with all your might. Careful or you'll miss the treasure. I hope you me, in good measure.
