

Once 400 of these distributed free water to communities in Barbados. Pic of Team members washing an article here.

Clear liquid inside a green shell. Pic of team members drinking straight from the shell. Extra point if you show them eating the jelly

Pyramid of three or more team members on the beach.

Built in 1629, it is one of 6 originally built in Barbados. On Douglas Street. Show one or more team members by this landmark.

This area was refurbished from 2004 to 2013 2006. Now a popular Cropover venue for Pan music. Pic by the plaque.

The service station carrying the outdated gold and red logo.

Chat with fisherman in straw hat. Bonus point if team member is captured holding a fish

For Sale or For Rent sign in specific spot from any company in our group.

Don't get arrested, just get a pic by District E.

Let's go fishing. Pose holding a fishing line in the water.

