

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

For your gift this year, You might need to work a bit my dear!

Use your head, use your brain. Look behind the thing that falls most when it rains!

For the next installment, Look behind her ladyship's portrait.

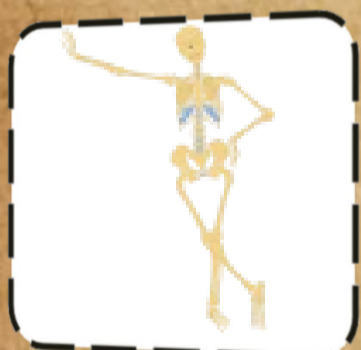

By now you might need reinforcements.

Number three is quite the surprise. To find it Stat, Go say hi to King Twat!

And now to piece it all together, This last piece will be the most treasured.

Go to the doppelganger of your most trusted friend. Tell her she looks rad in this new trend.

Hope you enjoyed your B'day scavenger hunt.

With Love,

Mel!
