

The hunt for the presents begins with this clue, find the next one where you'd find some scissors and glue!

Good work, don't get cocky, the first one was easy, to find the next clue, look for citrus fruit "squeezy"!

Oooh you're so clever, you think this is fun? Now check out the succulent by morning sun.

Fine work, ok maybe you're smart as can be, but now you must look where the "library" be!

That was tough hey? You finished? You had enough yet? NO? Alright, now go look in the room that's not finished quite yet...(look up)

You did it! You made it past half the way through, look where linens are kept and you'll find the next clue.

In the homestretch you're almost done, just keep on looking, you might use these things to flip with when cooking.

So where would you look if you wanted to spy, a famous bridge over a quite famous river (not nearby)?

Excited? I bet.. it's almost the end, so check out where daddy, his emails he sends.

To find both your presents is where you are led, when it's night and you want a place to lay your head! :)
