

When the urge comes there's just one place to go. Don't forget to wash your hands so bacteria doesn't start to grow...

If you were 'able', you'd add a 'T', especially if you've been to a morning bible study...

When we're well-organized we store cups here. Otherwise they're in random places, exactly where isn't quite clear.

The more I dry, the wetter I become...

It seems many of us can't get by without this. Especially in the morning when things are less than "bliss".

I rhyme with coaster and make warm breakfast treats...

Up and down and up and down you climb these with ease. Especially when you go to ask "Can you turn the music down please?!"

You use me to share things with others. I make things black & white or many colors.

When I'm fresh I smell good, there's none like me. When I twinkle I'm beautiful people are happy.

#10 I'm big, I'm electric, I'm full of space. I'm often used to tell about Jesus' grace.
