

Oh Christmas Tree, Oh Christmas Tree, you're more lovely with pottery ornaments. Go to the store to pick up templates to paint, fire and glaze.

Woodinville is full of lights this time of year. Go check out the lights at the French Wine Castle.

This is the Paradise where you can see the Mount Baker View. Take the box of ornaments to decorate a tree next to the bench.

I am super KEEN to see the lights at this family's house.

Snowflake Lane is a magical place.

You may find a Santa Selfie here and you can put your house up for sale with this Woodinville Company. Don't forget to get a snap of you and Santa.

Go towards the water where the children are holding hands and running. You'll see a Christmas tree across from Haley's Cottage.

A Steel Company has a light show? Trucking towards the holidays.

Go to the park with the bench swing...close to David's favourite place to eat.

Go to our family's favourite store and buy this year's ornament.
