

For the first clue was the last for one and now they lie beneath the sun, under dirt and with a stone, Rip to one who strayed from home.

Halloween is time for lights, with a scary face, this might give you a fright!

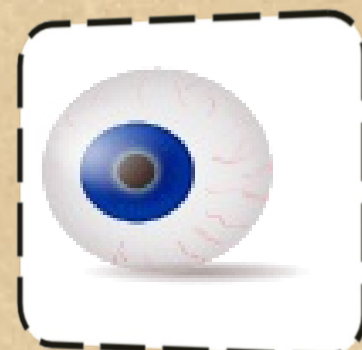

Blood will be your favourite treat when you get a bite from the man you'll meet! His teeth and pearly white and clean, so sharp they'll make you scream!

When she was cooking boiled bat, the strong, cold wind blew off her hat!

Bad luck is chance, nothing but that! But be afraid when you see this cat!

You'll need these to see the next clue an extra can be found in a shoe!

This holds your candy snug and tight, Trick or Treat! Thank you, goodnight!

Bound with magic, strong with words, you must be quick or you'll come third!

The second last won't make you moan, it's really easy, just find a bone!

The last thing you must find is my broom, then return to the first room!