

I'm high off the ground but I'm still called a floor. I'm blocked off from you but I don't have a door

You can be as loud as you want you can scream and run but I'm not outside yet you still have fun

I'm not what you eat but inside of me you'll still find a treat

I'm like a tree but I don't have leaves and monkeys like to swing on me

I look like a cow but I don't say moo but if you push hard enough I will move

I keep you in I keep you out where ever you go I'm all around

I'm not a doctor but I keep you healthy you come to me right before you eat.

I'm always locked so you have to knock

You get to me right before you leave I'm not a door but a number indeed

HaHa I never left I'm right up those few steps
