

Fine something that's brown and falls from the Georgia pines.

Look up or down any shape or color will do, they start off on trees then end up on ground in the fall.

Everybody loves me, I'm pretty and smell sweet look down or around you might find me anywhere.

You can find my on the ground all shapes and sizes, some people keep me has a pet.

I'm green and grow in the ground if you lucky you may fine I have four leaves instead of three.

Hunt if you dare for a health snack if are furry friends have left any behind.

Creepy and crawly all shapes and sizes if you can find me a picture will do !

Fluttering, flying and flitting so free, from flower to flower is where you find me, please don't touch a picture will do.

It falls off of birds and crows, you can use it to tickle your best friends nose.

It's the outside of something planted in the ground. It's name is the same as a dogs sound.
