

Your hunt starts at the beginning. The beginning grade for most school children. Take a group picture.

Smile! Is what you were asked to do on this day. A memory hanging on a wall of all of you. Take a silly face picture.

This place is full of joy and sound. You may even dance around. Strike a dance pose and take a picture.

It may get messy. So many different materials to use. Oh what will you craft? Oh what will you do. Take a pic with your favorite craft item.

This room must be used for training. You build your muscles and have fun doing it. Show your muscles, photo time

He helps us out every day. He cleans our school hip hip hooray! Tell them thanks and take a picture with him.

After all that hard work your body could be hungry. A place to find food, Oh so yummy. Grab an orange and take a photo

Your last big year at South Prairie will be spent here. Give a big cheer as you take a picture.

If you were to ask a mouse,he may want a cookie. This cute little book can be found here. Take a picture with a Magic Tree House book.

When your day ends your love one will pick you up here. Find your bag with your name when you go home.

