

This person teaches you not to talk to strangers and will help you if you are in trouble.

This group gives out information about making good choices and being well.

This business will teach you about saving energy in your house.

This table will teach you everything about being HEALTHY.

Visit the group that will teach you to ride your bike in a safe area.

This group works at a place that is just for kids when they don't feel well.

Visit the group that supports East Windsor and promotes being good Citizens.

Visit the guy that loves music and has great dance moves.

Find the mascots and get a high five.

