

The first place you need to look bubbles like a brook. You can turn it on and off, it has a spout. You can get a drink, when you are out.

Hop as high as a bunny; bounce without care. You'll feel so free as you fly through the air.

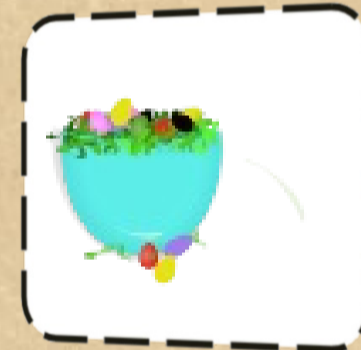

If ducks had these, they wouldn't need wings. Go and look closely under the...

Eggs don't have these; they close with a latch. If they did, chicks would find it easier to hatch.

Homes for bunnies, cool and green, underneath where they can't be seen.

Look for an egg where lambs like to snack. If you lay down there, it might tickle your back.

Ducks, chicks, and even sheep are what your dog dreams of when it goes to sleep.

Going up and down can make gray hairs. The Easter Bunny gets so tired climbing up...

People knock on me to say hello, but lock me up after their visitors go.

The last clue is in a place usually hidden up high. It's a typical house for those who play in the sky.
