

How many round things can you find in this room? Count them.

Count the red things in the room. Is the number greater or less than 10?

What shape is your beach towel?

Are there more boys or girls in your classroom?

Measure the distance of your beach towel using your shoes.

How many fingers and toes in the room? Count by 5's.

How many people's legs are in the room? Count by 2's.

Write down a number between 10 and 15. Ask someone wearing white to clap that many times.

Measure the distance of your beach towel using your shoes.

Build a triangle with pencils or crayons.

