

You can have a field day at this place! Its even BIG enough a house could fit in it. Go here and snap a picture of whats taking place.

Algebra keeps asking about her "x". Visit the place where people can help you and Algebra find it and snap a picture of the sign outside the door.

Show us your bachata moves in front of the Band Room. A picture or recording would be nice!

If you want to know what is happening around school, there's plenty of places to tune into . Find the largest one and snap a picture. PS It's pretty old school.

Once you find Easts brain, write down who is famous for this quote: Nothing is hopeless; we must hope for everything.

This is where all the college action happens, but before you get there you must: Ace your classes, Create opportunities, and Test your limits! Find the office that will help you practice for the big test.

When the going gets rough or too long, Rams hop in one of these to make sure they get to their destination safely. Snap a picture of these.

Locker trouble? You know this office is always willing to help out. Snap a picture of the sign outside the door

This gas is primarily responsible for global warming. You will find one of these, minus the gas at East. Snap a picture in front of it.

East is full of talent: drawing, photography, ceramics. Find the area where students can display their artistic abilities.

