

Happy birthday, Papa. We love you a lot. Go to the place where things get real hot.

When there's work to be done, Papa goes here. It's also the place where he keeps his beer.

Papa's favorite place in the house, we know. Look under this place, where the dust bunnies grow.

Here you make music. It's also a beat. Find your next present and make a cool beat.

This place is dad's office where he sends a fax. Search for it here. Don't be lazy or lax.

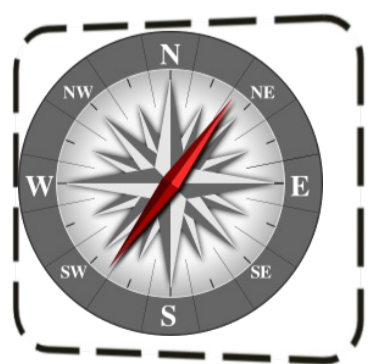

On warm summer days we spend our time here. Hurry, go find it. You've nothing to fear.

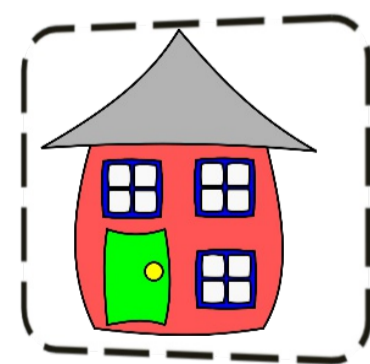

If you were a bird you might here build a nest. But you're not, now go find where the next present rests

You check here every day for something to come. I know you will find it because you're not dumb.

This is what you need when you must travel far. Not a bike or a trike, this is a _ _ _

The last gift's not at our house, I must say. Go to the place you spent most of your days.
