

This year students have caused their teachers to lose these. Look carefully at the teachers cars.

Energy from the wind powers this fun children's toy.

The birds are "molting." Find evidence of this animal adaptation.

Living organisms begin from here. This time of year you see many. They can be carried by animals, wind, or water.

Older students: This part Part of the plant where photosynthesis takes place. Younger students: We love to jump in them in Fall. Must be green.

An Inclined plane provides AN inclined plane: For AN Easier movement of things up or down--an inclined plane. On the back of this paper draw a popular piece of playground equipment.

if you can find this secret treasure you could buy something for yourself or a loved one.

Evidence of our Galaxy is right before your eyes. If it is a very hot today, send in the oldest student to check out the fridge.

Find something spherical and bounce it all the way to Mrs. H. and Mrs. Leoni.

Find three items: Each one must start with the first three letters of the alphabet.

