

an easy start out is to find the place where you could relax and watch TV your getting close to a big surprise!!!! now look for a place where you could go and relax on red chairs getting closer. to the huge surprise.. now follow the white carpet to the front where you invite people in.

follow the brown wood road and go to the stairs the go down look and you will find that the light will help you now go to a room where we play games and there you find another clue.

behind the curtains in the basement there will be another clue awaiting

3 more to go. look for the cat that will be hiding with the garage sales in the hidden closet of doom if your this far you are a professional. good job. now look for the donkey without a tail.

now that you've found it the last clue will be the hardest. Up and down round and around from food to pots you will find the big surprise.

good job congratulations you have found the last clue now go ask mom if you could have a brownie.
