

A small little ball, located in the hall, behind a door, there you will find on the floor. Take only one.

To the park you stroll, seek the closed goal and there you find something to roll. Take only one.

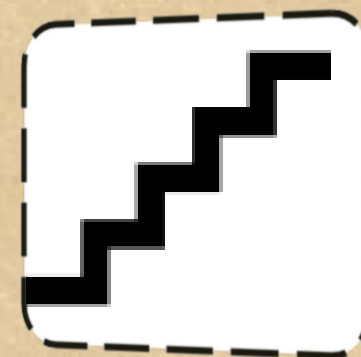

Played on this big thing all season, I give you reason, to find the middle, get your riddle. Take one.

A park has many places that are calm, under the seat you shall find some balm. Take only one.

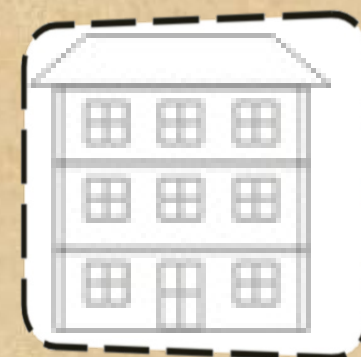

There is a huge park, this thing has bark, pick up something that rhymes with bone and stone.

Outside in the back, a set of stairs, underneath is where you find squares. Take only one.

To the front, this hunt shall go, to pretty things that grow, take an item that is sure to glow.

There is a little house, painted yellow, in the belly, find a little jelly. Take only one.

A room with a tower, has a great power, find something that shows the hour. Take only one.

To the driveway you go, is a red rock, team have a talk, you might baulk, rhymes tock. Take only one.