

it may be tiny and has three words but its a mexican shot glass you just have to find the name we wear these in he summer and you can see your toes this is the name of the toilet paper we buy i got these shoes because my other ones were too small just wheres the box we get these for sports at the end of the season these things are smaller than what they mostly look like and you can eat them but first you pill it we use these to shave our legs you can find these on the fridge and they "smile" but what color are they now you can find your love. think of what the items first letter is and you can find him there just one more thing you have to find..the clothes you need to wear. they are in your bedroom
