

Look for a superhero with a black mask and cape (Nana nana nana nana). You will find him by something green that swings.

Look for something colorful that you wear on your wrist. You will find it by something that creates smoke.

Look for a pirate, always looking for treasure that lives in Never Land. You will find him by a tree that is always green.

This gal is blue and wears a white dress and hat. Look for her by something bouncy and green.

Your mission is to look for a super hero in a disguise named Clark Kent. Look by something metal that opens and closes.

Look for a yellow object that bounces. You might see it near something that grows vegetables.

This little horse always has a cutie mark. Look for her by something brown that people sit on.

Your mission is to find a despicable yellow guy...Do you think you know? If so, he will be located near something that produces grapes.

Your mission is to find a bowling pin. You will find it near something slippery that is green and yellow.

Your last mission is to find the princess that lost her glass slipper. Look up high near something that helps us see far away.