

Corner office with a great view, this year Janet will see us through! Find her favourite beverage :)

So many combinations, so little time. Reedmere is on lockdown! What will we have to munch on :)

Has anyone seen Leslie? She must be working on schedules, her marbles aren't in her drawer :)

This machine has technology to scan, copy, staple, fax. Oh my, is there another jam!!

Going for lunch in the neighbourhood? Where will I find those menus?

Rates? CDIC info? No problem, I gotcha covered.

This space is shared... there's entertainment, gatherings, conversation and food.

If you decline me, I have to go to a specific place. Let's hope I am approved :)

Penny for your thoughts? Don't keep me locked up!

Money, money here and there!! Money, money everywhere!!
