

I have two hands upon my face. You check my time to keep your pace. (Take a picture with this)

Just sit on this and you will go high. Just kick your legs to help you fly. (Take a picture with this)

Off my tree I am alone. Do not eat me with ice cream, even though I am a cone. (Collect 3)

So carefree you will glide from high to low. The laughter will bring to your face a nice glow. (Take a picture with this)

My fingers are bare. My arms stretch in the sky. My skin is rough and bumpy. I'm home to those who fly. (Take a picture with this)

Children like me as much as macaroni and cheese. Eat me too fast and you will get a brain freeze. (Take a picture with this)

I sleep all day; at night I wander free. When I look in the mirror, there is nothing to see. (Take a picture acting this out)

I have a neck, but not head, but I still wear a cap. (Collect 5)
