

Fairies love to look for things with sparkley colors. it rhymes with FIND PHONE

And then you hunt a feathered friend that is blue as the sky can be. Sometimes it sit's in a tree.

Red with spots this bug you will know... So please look down close near your toes.

There is something beautiful that shines as bright as the sun, See it fly with wings so fun.

They hide from human's. Because they are so small.look close they maybe on a wall.

And when you find these; you can walk like a fairy.

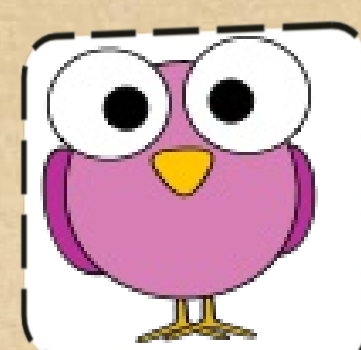

There's something to find that fairies use to build their homes. It's a nut that fall's from a tree.

There is a special Mushroom in the forest for all to find.

This an animal that has a furry tail.So find him fast and give him a whirl.

this little creature has big eye's. And he loves to make noise at night.