

What is the title of the first book in the fiction section of our library?

What is the title of the last book in the non-fiction section of our library?

How many different magazine/periodical titles do we have in our library?

How long can you check a magazine/periodical out for?

How many books can you check out at one time?

How long can you check books out for?

Where can you find the most recent copies of magazines/periodicals in our library?

What should the voice level be in the library?

Where are the reference books located in this library? Find one and write down the title.

Where is the card catalog in this library and what is it called?

