

HAPPY New Year

A new year is coming Even if it's not snowing; Find a play-thing for baby If you want to keep going.

It's not New Year's Eve Without party hats; But first you must find one; Just don't take the cat's.

Tick-tick-tick-tock Time's passing fast. If you aren't "social" This hunt will never last.

Blow your horn loud! Blow your horn "strong"! Make one of your own Or this hunt won't last too long.

Confetti and streamers Are a New Year's Eve treat. Either may be sharing The same space as your feet.

There's a lady all in blue Who is looking right at you; She has something that says, "New"; Do you NOW know what to?

Coupons save a dollar, a shilling or a pound. You can find them upstairs, Downstairs...all around.

Old 2014 calendars Are 2015's trash. Find one that's been "dumped" And add it to your stash.

Streamers, balloons, And serpentina; Go be "social" all nightina.

Show everyone who's team is the stronger. Take a picture - it lasts longer.
