

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Your mission? To create a superhero identity. Name, superpower, and secret identity.

Have an adult guess the word "lost" just by acting it out! No speaking! Then find out where to go for a rescue mission!

A superhero needs to find nourishment! Act out what you want for lunch to your mom!

Create your own superhero base! Using pillows, blankets and more. Name it!

We should always be battle ready - conduct your own training regime for everyone and an obstacle course!

We need to prepare for an attack! Get your list of items and gather them all together!

Under attack! Secure the household, then prepare for battle. Put on your armor and get the location of the battle.

The main battle is done- it's time for the party now! But there is still a challenge of photo evidence...

It's time for your reward! Come back to the home base and get your reward!

Let's relax now and watch the ultimate superhero movie! Know which one? Act it out for people to guess!
