

I act as the traffic cop for any information in your computer.

I check for hardware, the time, and date.

I am an external storage device you can carry on a keychain.

What do you get when you cross a hamburger with a computer?

If you melt me down I could make a pretty vase. Shiny green, red, blue or yellow.

What is an internet snack?

I am a peripheral pointing device for your computer. Lasers and arrows are my traits.

What do you call a singing computer?

I used to move in waves and it took a long time. Now I move in 1s and 0s, am faster and there is more of me at a time.

Why can't you break wind (fart) in an Apple Store?
