

I get filled and then emptied six days a week. If you don't own my contents, you can't take a peek.

I can take you great distances at varying speeds. To move even an inch, you are what I need.

When it's extremely cold you can't leave me out. Everyone needs me for their garden to sprout.

I can't move by myself but I make lots of noise. Watch out or I'll suck up your toys!

If you were soggy and wet like me you would cry. The next clue went here to get dry.

I have keys but I don't open a door. Clue #6 can use me for files, info, games and more.

"One, two, find my shoe. My black boot holds a clue."

The headless horseman rode through here.

I'll heat your food, but hunting is the mood, when u stay here, time to harvest a deer.

This lady loves you and the final clue is what she craves when the kids behave.
