

I have the longest neck of all. It's full of spots and makes me tall. I eat leaves from all types of trees. My long legs help me run with ease.

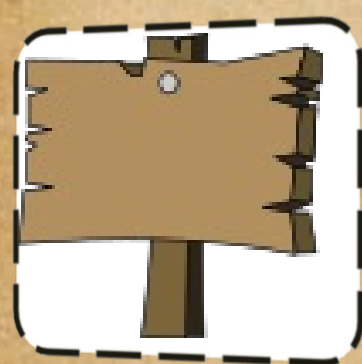

I have no hands to eat my food, so please don't think that I am rude! My trunk is like a vacuum hose, that sucks the food from ground to nose.

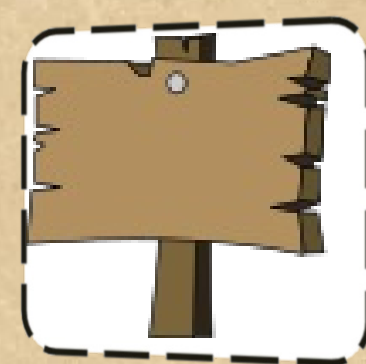

I am large and my skin is thick. I only eat plants or I'll get sick. I look scary without a doubt, with two horns sticking up from my snout.

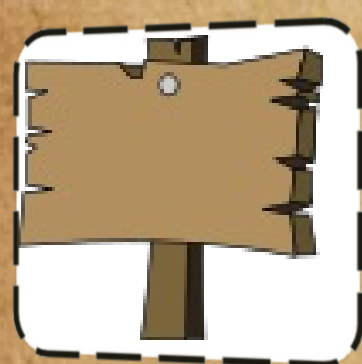

I have a beard around my face. It's a mane of hair and I love to race. The king of the jungle is my name, and my big roar gives me much fame.

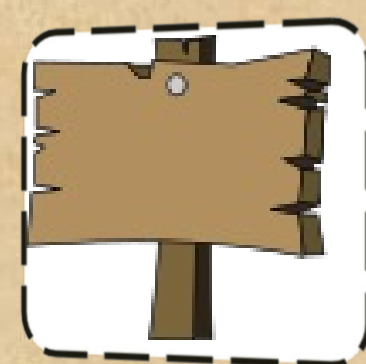

I can walk on four legs, and eat with them too. I pound on my chest and can be found at the zoo.

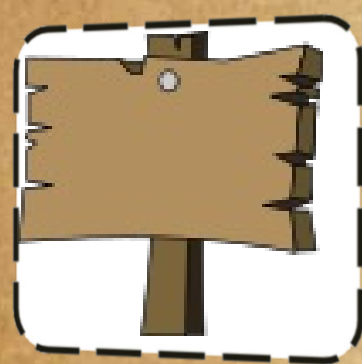

I'm a cat who can purr and I'm not very tall. Although I can't roar, I'm the fastest of all.

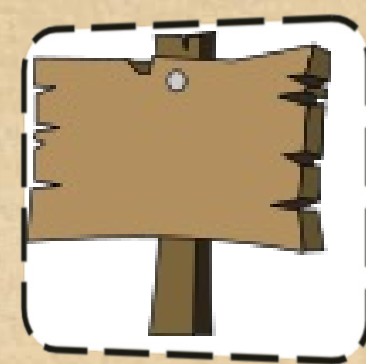

I like to wallow in water deep. I like the mud between my feet. I have a big mouth and I'm as big as a car. I'm also in the movie Madagascar.

I'm the biggest cat of all. I can be orange, I can be white. My growl and my teeth will cause you great fright.

My spotted coat allows me to blend. If you see me coming, I am not your friend. I can hunt in water, on the ground and from the trees. Hunting and bouncing and pouncing with ease.

I am white and black with a bushy mane running down my back. I like to gallop and play on the African plains all day.
