

When you hear the music playing that means the hunt is almost over. You have approximately 10 seconds to make it back to the photo booth before the other team! Each member must have a total of 4 books.

The winning team will receive their prize! Be careful, work as a team, and have fun!

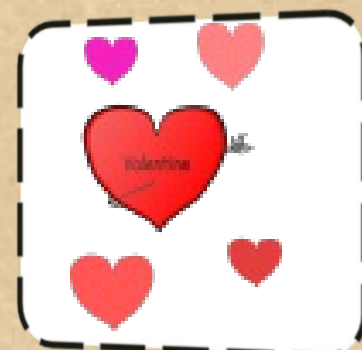

I hear English is single and he thinks I'm cute. He wants to be my boyfriend his number is room #

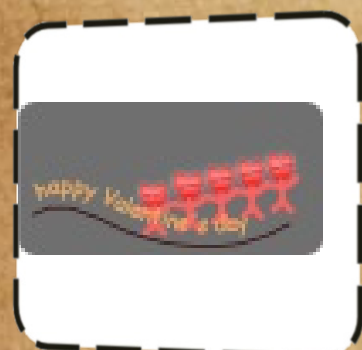

English wasn't what I thought he would be! I want math, he has that bad boy image. His name is math and his # is Rm.

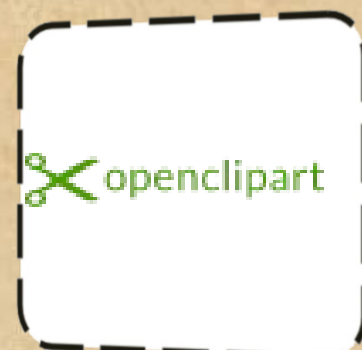

Oh my gosh! I saw fine social studies! Math had too many girls after him. I want to get to know history. He lives at Rm. #

Hey, science how are you doing? I've dated a lot, but I know you're the one. I'm coming to see you at the park #

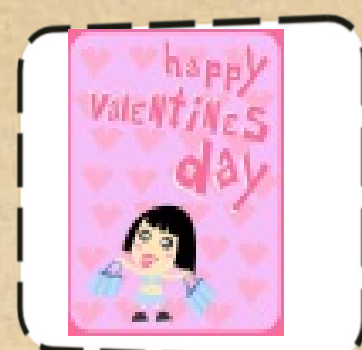

One thing I know, those wonderful subjects will never let me down. Stop by the photo booth and take a picture with all your exes. Say "Cheese"

I will never hold my feelings inside. If I do not have any one to talk to, I will write my feelings down inside my journal.
