Governed consumer liability for unauthorized card usage.

Places a monthly limit on the number of transfers you make from Savings.

Addresses the treatment of nonpublic personal information of consumers.

Requires financial institutions to publish guidelines for accepting gifts.

Governs the collection and use of information used in granting credit, providing insurance, or employment.

Requires institutions to provide information about fees and interest when opening an account.

Requires debt lenders to disclose all the specifics of a loan.

Enacted to set standards for endorsements on paid checks.

Intended to prevent discrimination against applicants for consumer credit.