

He is young but all so bright, don't look now but he has your light.

Who would have thought this item was won by this most unlikely basketball player at HCS? Find them and get a prize.

She works all the time at HCS, but doesn't really work at HCS. Find this person and receive your prize.

One is older and the other is not, find the one with the prize and you will gain a lot.

Don't debate because it is much too late. This person may be little in stature, but but big in personality. Find him and you will get a prize.

You never know what you will get when you are at least expecting. You only need ask this person to receive your prize.

The person may seem to always be barking especially if you are illegally parking. Find them and get your prize.

As we bring our phone, this person is usually the first person we see each day along the way. Find them and get your prize.

This magical tube controls the rain making sure its contents head down the drain. Find the one with the prize.

This person quietly lurks throughout the school helping both students and teachers is her number one rule. Find this person and get a prize.