

Find someone who has a paper-clip. Put it in your pail.

Raccoons love to eat fruit. Find an orange and put it in your pail.

Ask around until you find Dr. Ilyas. Ask him to put his initials in this box.

Early explorers left some gold coins buried close by. Find one and put it in your pail.

Floods have washed seashells into the park. Find one and put it in your pail.

Ask around until you find someone who had or has a birthday this month. Ask him or her to put their name in the box.

Find someone who has an eraser. Put it in the pail.

Many frogs live here. Let's leave them alone but find a plastic one and put in your pail.

Pick up a fallen leaf and put it in your pail.

Always be prepared on field trips. Find someone with a band-aid and put it in your pail.

