

Welcome to Egypt! Collect 3 dandelions to start the game

"So the river shall bring forth... abundantly. This was the second plague. Ribbit. Find me!

Find something Miriam could have used to help weave a basket for baby Moshe.

Act out to your mom one of the plagues not mentioned in this game.

The children of Israel were building bricks. Find a rock, stone or something that could have been used for making brick.

It is time to leave! Ask one of the co-op moms for something that represents how the Hebrews plundered the Egyptians.

Look for the two letter answer Pharaoh told Moshe when he asked to let the people go worship.

Pick a Pesach song and sing it together with a friend.

Look for something that reminds you of the first plague.

Dance like Miriam at the Red sea!
