

These are the NWEA goals I want to achieve by spring.

This area helps me stay on track with my behavior each day.

This board had our monthly Focus word in which I try to apply to my life daily.

This acronym keeps on track with talking, asking for help & movement for each activity.

This is the agreement we, as a class decided to abide by so that learning can take place.

This section of the board helps me to know what we will talk about in class.

This section of the board tells me what my homework is each night.

This is the beginning stage of our class library. Please support us by ordering online with Scholastic Books!

Our core vocabulary words are listed here. Hint: Old Mother Hubbard had plenty of these!

We keep our Scholar Dollars in a safe place.
