

In this corner of the pool there is sunken treasure. You must find it without when we leave the dinner, we are going to have the silly walk part of the hunt. The person who does the silliest walk gets to enter the hotel room first. All the girls will decide!!!!

To find this clue you must look under one of the objects that people can lay on by the pool.

Once inside the room, this clue will be in the room where you brush your teeth and POOOP!!!!

When you are finished with your swim, you will all head for the showers this clue is gold and in one

There will be a colored piece of paper in the two rooms, 8 of them. One will be different from the others.

if you all walk in line quietly and carefully to dinner, the next clue will be under a napkin at the dinner table.

In one of the drawers in the room you will find a kiss!!!!

During dinner the person sitting 2 seats away from Layla will have to walk around the table 5 times for this next clue. It will be under their seat

The final treasure will be found under a pillow. See if you can find it
