

Dinner is on the stove- so feed the kids while I get your first clue ready. When your done get them dressed and you might find clue number 1.

It goes -Vroom -Vroom and takes us places we want to go...it should be fun but the kids can't know so lets keep our voices very low.

Drive us to the place me and the kids go every other Wednesday-what's going on you wonder-I won't say...

Now we are on our own until 10 pm-so let's go somewhere to eat that we've been (only once before) with our very favorite friends (now we get to go once more)!

Now were off to snuggle with a movie that means so much! A villain with too many fingers in his glove is defeated by those who share "Twoo Wuv".

Now it's time to say ado to our time of just us two-but don't be sad-i have something to make you glad Silk and lace and a bow or two. The only one who sees these things is lucky you!
